

Cardiology Consults at YNHH-York

Last Modified: 6/20/2014

Code: Cards Cons-E-Y

Elective Description:

This elective will introduce the resident to consultative cardiology. Residents will be a member of the consult team, which includes the cardiology fellow and consult attending. Daily rounds will be held with the consult attending. Responsibility of the residents includes work-up of new patients, presentation to fellow and attending, communication of recommendations with primary care team, and appropriate follow-up. Conferences available to the resident include Fellows' Conference – Monday – Thursday at 7:30 a.m. and Cardiology Grand Rounds/Clinical Conference (Fri 8:00 a.m.). Focused exposure to selected subspecialty areas (nuclear cardiology, echocardiography, stress testing, electrophysiology, heart failure) may be individually arranged during a portion of this elective, subject to availability.
